lack of prejudice. In this case, due to a variety of stressors and personal factors arising from the 2017 fires ("North Bay Fires"), Movant was unable to timely file his proof of claim. Because there is no danger of prejudice to the Debtors, as Debtors' estates are solvent, and all creditors in these cases stand to be paid their pro rata shares, the Motion should be granted to allow the Movant to have the claim deemed timely. Case

II. Factual Background

Pertinent Bankruptcy Background. Α.

On January 29, 2019, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("Debtors" or "PG&E") commenced the above-captioned voluntary Chapter 11 cases ("Chapter 11 Cases"). PG&E's Chapter 11 filings were necessitated by a confluence of factors resulting from catastrophic fires that occurred in Northern California prior to the Petition Date, and PG&E's potential liabilities arising therefrom.

The deadline for filing proofs of claim with respect to any prepetition claim including, but not limited to, all claims of Fire Claimants, Wildfire Subrogation Claimants, Governmental Units and Customers, and all secured and priority claims against the Debtors was October 21, 2019, at 5:00 p.m. ("General Bar Date").

The deadline for filing claims was extended to December 31, 2019 ("Extended Bar Date"), solely for the benefit of any non-governmental Fire Claimants who did not file proofs of claim by the General Bar Date. [See Docket No. 4672]

On January 31, 2020, as Docket No. 5590, Debtors filed an Amended Chapter 11 Plan Debtor's and Shareholder Proponents' Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization Dated January 31, 2020.

On February 7, 2020, as Docket No. 5700, Debtors filed a Disclosure Statement for the Amended Plan.

On February 19, 2020, as Docket No. 5835, Debtors filed their Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving Form and Manner of Notice of Hearing on Proposed Disclosure Statement; (II) Establishing and Approving Plan Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (III) Approving Forms of Ballots, Solicitation Packages, and Related Notices; and (IV) Granting Related Relief ("Solicitation Procedures Motion").

On March 17, 2020, the Solicitations Procedures Motion was Approved.

After filing multiple iterations of the Plan, on June 19, 2020, as Docket No. 8048, Debtors filed an Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization dated June 19, 2020 (the "Final Plan").

MOTION TO ALLOW/DEEM TIMELY LATE FILING OF DEANNE LUZAICH, AND MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES AND DECLARATION OF ROBERT BONE IN SUPPORT THEREOF - Page 2

One June 20, 2020, post-voting and hotly contested confirmation hearings, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order confirming the Final Plan. [Docket No. 8053]

Movant's Claims Arising from the North Bay Fires.

Movant is a survivor of the North Bay Fires which occurred in 2017. Movant owned the real property located 255 Boas Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95409 (the "Property"). The Property, as well as personal property of the Movant, was substantially damaged from smoke, soot, and ash. Moreover, the Movant was displaced (as he was required to evacuate) and suffered substantial personal damages, nuisance, emotional distress due to proximity of the zone of danger, among other things. Due to substantial trauma, relocation, and the immense pressure resulting from the foregoing, the Movant did not become aware of the relevant bar dates in time to timely file the claim. It was not until after the Extended Bar Date and Claims Questionnaire Deadline that Movant realized his damages may be compensable and that he should file a proof of claim for his losses. Movant did not speak to an attorney regarding his possible claims until August

Discovery of Movant's Claims.

Robert M. Bone has recently met with the Movant to discuss his claim/case, who contacted his office. After meeting with the Movant, Mr. Bone prepared the Subject

Accordingly, on August 20, 2022, the Law Office of Robert M. Bone filed Claim No. 108789, on behalf of the Movant. A true and correct copy of the subject Proof of Claim is attached to the Declaration of Robert M. Bone as Exhibit 1, submitted herewith

Thus, the Movant now brings this Motion to deem timely his tardy Proof of

Legal Argument

In a Chapter 11 case, the time to file a proof of claim may be extended under certain Circumstances. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure ("FRBP") 3003(c)(3);

26

27

28

1	FRBP 9006(b)(1). The bankruptcy court has "broad equitable powers" in a Chapter 11
2	case with respect to the timing requirements for proofs of claim Pioneer Inventory
3	Services v. Brunswick Associates Limited Partnership, 507 U.S. 380, 389 (1993).
4	Moreover, Rule 9006(b)(1) allows "late filings caused by inadvertence, mistake, or
5	carelessness, not just those caused by intervening circumstances beyond a party's
6	control." Id , at 381. Even a creditor that did in fact receive notice may file a proof of
7	claim notwithstanding the expiration of a claims bar date in a Chapter 11 case upon a
8	showing of "excusable neglect." Id. , at 394-95 ("Had respondents here been prevented
9	from complying with the bar date by an act of God or some other circumstance beyond
10	their control, the Bankruptcy Court plainly would have been permitted to find 'excusable
11	neglect' [under FRBP 9006].").
12	In considering whether a creditor's failure was the product of "excusable
13	neglect," the Court should take account of the following: all relevant circumstances
14	surrounding the party's omission, including (1) the danger of prejudice to the debtor, (2)
15	the length of the delay and its potential impact on judicial proceedings, (3) the reason for
16	the delayed, including whether it was within the reasonable control fo the movant, and
17	(4) whether the movant acted in good faith. Id. , at 395; See also Corning v. Corning (In
18	re Zilog, Inc.), 450 F.3d 996 (9th Cir. 2006)(noting Pioneer's non-exhaustive list of
19	relevant factors). Again, a late-filed proof of claim is allowable where a creditor had
20	actual notice fo the bankruptcy, but, due to some external reason, failed to file a proof of
21	claim or did not realize that she or he had to prior to the bar date. See, e.g., ZiLOG, Inc.
22	V. Corning (In re ZiLOG, Inc.), 450 F.3d 996, 1003-1007 (9th Circ. 2006) (applying the
23	Pioneer factors). Here, consideration of all four Pioneer factors—as well as the fifth
24	engrafted onto the Pioneer analysis by some courts—weights in favor of the Movant.
25	In particular, there is no danger of prejudice to the Debtors in this case. Thus, the
26	first Pioneer factor weights in favor of the Movants. The Debtors' estates are solvent,
27	and all creditors stand to be paid their pro rata share. See, E.G., In re Best Payphones,
28	Inc., 523 B.R. 54, 75-76 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015) and In re Sheehan Mem'l Hosp., 507

1	B.R. 802, 803 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2014) (where the Chapter 11 estate is solvent, "the
2	proper remedy for a late filing is not the expungement of a claim, but its allowance as a
3	tardily filed claim only.). Secondly, immediately upon receiving all the necessary
4	information, the Subject Proof of Claim was filed. Thirdly, the delay in filing the Subject
5	Proof of Claim is reasonable considering immediately upon becoming aware of the
6	damages that arose from the North Bay Fires, the Law Office of Robert M. Bone was
7	retained in this matter and a proof of claim was filed by the Law Office of Robert M.
8	Bone on behalf of Movants. More, any prospect of prejudice beyond solvency is unlikely
9	given that (a) all distributions have not yet been made; and (b) the value of Movants'
10	claims relative to the value fo Debtors' estates is low. See, e.g., In re Keene Corp., 188
11	B.R. 903, 910 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1995) (size of the late claim in relation to the estate is a
12	consideration in determining prejudice).
13	Finally, the Fire Victim Trust has been routinely permitting late proofs of claims
14	to be allowed, where such tardiness is excusable under the Pioneer factors and foregoing.
15	Only until very recently did the Fire Victim Trust begin to no longer sign-off on such
16	tardy claims—without any consideration or individual review of each such request. In
17	which case, the Movant contends that good cause exists and the Motion should be
18	granted.
19	IV.
20	Conclusion
21	Based upon the foregoing, the Movant hereby requests that the Court grant this
22	Motion and deem timely the Subject Proof of Claim.
23	WHEREFORE, the Movant prays for an order:
24	1. Granting the Motion in its entirety;
25	2. Finding that the Subject Proof of Claim filed by the Movant is to be
26	allowed as having been timely filed; and
27	3. Granting such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Attach Supporting Documentation (limited to a single PDF attachment that is less than 5 megabytes in size and under 100 pages):
I have supporting documentation. (attach below)	I do not have supporting documentation.

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
 - Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
